

Sew it fits

by Dena Kent-Esbjerg

Owner Jessica Gingrich

Are your old clothes not quite fitting right anymore? Or do you need your pre-loved garments tailored or repaired, so they look brand new again? At Sew It Fits you can have your garments professionally tailored to fit your unique body shape and size, so you always look amazing. You can highlight your best features with clothing that looks like it was custom-made.

Owner, Jessica Gingrich, offers professional alterations at affordable rates. With Jessica you get the unbeatable combination of professional skills and friendly personalized service. If it's an expert eye for detail that you're after, then you need look no further.

Gingrich is a professional seamstress with over 20 years of experience and expertise to cater to all your sewing and tailoring needs. From the basics of taking up or down and ins and outs she has amazing attention to detail. She is also very popular for alterations on prom dresses and bridal gowns as well as hospital work wear.

"Every bride deserves to look nothing less than her very best on her special day", states Gingrich, who specializes in helping brides look breathtakingly beautiful in perfectly fitting gowns. The fabric and design of wedding dresses calls for alterations from an experienced specialist, so you can be sure her superior seamstress know-how will ensure that you are an image of perfection as you glide down the aisle.

She can also professionally reupholster cushions for your patio and/or household furniture.

At Sew It Fits you will experience personalized service at its very best. You will receive undivided attention as your garments are adjusted to fit you perfectly, giving you that impressive tailored look. Whether you've lost weight, gone up a size, or bought something that just doesn't fit quite right, she will look after you and ensure that everything fits you as it should.

Many types of alterations call for a specialized service from an experienced expert – and I can tell you from personal experience, her work is amazing. Her expert skills along with an eye for detail ensures a perfect alteration every time, without the hefty price-tag.

"If it's possible then I can do it," says Gingrich. "My aim is to provide my customers and clients with a swift alteration service with the emphasis on quality and service. Nothing is too big or too small, same day repairs are possible."

As in many business that were closed during the beginning stages of the pandemic, Gingrich remembers too well the frustration and depression of not knowing when she could return to her 'Happy Place'. At first she was lost, wondering how she would survive this situation. So, she decided she would do something to help others, and began to make masks. She gave them away through contests and donated many to those in need. "This gave me a sense of being", says Gingrich, "it lifted my spirits helping people and I just knew we would get through this".

Her store at 242 Maxwell Street N, is now back open and everything is running seamlessly. Check her out on Facebook page or call today 519-332- FITS (3487) for a free quote or to book an obligation-free appointment, You will find out just how affordable it is to have perfectly fitting clothing that looks as it should.

"Not only is everybody different, but every body is too. Our goal is to have it look like we were never there, Sew It Fits".

